Spirited Arts 2025

Last week, parents supported their child in creating artistic interpretations of the theme 'Living in a diverse world'.

How fabulous do our displays look! Lots of wonderful artwork was produced as well as receiving some lovely positive feedback. Thank you to all that came!

Thank you for allowing us to be part of it and work together with our children. The project is unique and interesting.

It was lovely to see him in the classroom environment and work on a project

The project itself was nice in the way it had meaning but still allowed the children to do their own thing.

Geography – Exploring our local area

This week, our pupils have been out and about in our school grounds or local area, developing their field work skills of observation, data collection, map reading and analysis, as well as a deeper understanding of their environment. Each class were given a real-life enquiry question to investigate and then collected data as evidence to support their observations and conclusions.
